William Ball is a qualified litigation attorney who has been defending homeowners in foreclosure since 2008 when the current housing crisis began. He represents homeowners who want to stay in their homes and have not been able to successfully negotiate a fair settlement with their home loan servicer. He is qualified to help homeowners in all areas of foreclosure. Foreclosure sales; judicial foreclosure lawsuits, forcible entry detainer (FED) actions following foreclosure sales, and citizens who have been wrongfully foreclosed upon and who are no longer in their homes.
